

ALLISON GOLDBERG

Allison Goldberg partnered with the Image Dynamics team in 1997 to lead the efforts of the Houston office. She facilitates training seminars and provides coaching for clients including Omni Hotels, Accenture, Zurich, Allstate and many others. Allison is also fluent in Spanish and enjoys facilitating the training seminars in both English and Spanish.

Prior to joining Image Dynamics, Allison spent several years in fundraising and management at the United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast. At the United Way, she developed her business and professional skills while raising awareness and commitment to philanthropy. During her time at the United Way, she created and managed 25-30 corporate giving programs along with several million dollars in fundraising efforts.

“The most successful individuals are those who can handle all business situations with confidence and clarity.” Image Dynamics professionals provide a broad range of business and personal expertise, drawing from diverse backgrounds including education, communication, human resources, management, social work and the law.

Now operating from offices in Dallas, Houston, New York and San Francisco, Allison and the Image Dynamics team help a broad base of industry leaders and emerging businesses get to the top and stay there with programs that breed exceptional leadership, creative thinking and a highly effective workforce.

Image Dynamics has been featured by CNN, CNBC, Dallas Business Journal, The Washington Post, The Dallas Morning News, American Way and NPR. They were also just recognized as one of the best 25 small companies to work for by Working Mother's Magazine.
